SPRINGDALE.

Mrs. J. W. Cobb is spending Easter with her parents at Rome, O.
Mrs. Henry Gidding, of Tollesboro, was a pleasant visitor Sunday.
Mr. Irwin has moved here from Lewis county and occupies the Gidding property.
Mrs. Ella Trumbo has returned from Portsmouth, O., where she was visiting friends for a few days.
Mr. G. F. Greve has fears that his tobacco plants were injured by the recent freeze of Sunday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Blount came down from Lewis county and spent Saturday and Sunday with friends here.
Mr. and Mrs. James Sweet have a new baby at their home. This makes the fourteenth edition of this thriving family.
Mr. Jesse Garnett, of Lewis county, has moved into the Kirk house. There are now no vacant houses in our vicinity.
Mr. John Mann, of Vanceburg, arrived here Saturday a. m., and was regretting a pair of $5 shoes that he left lying on one of the car seats.
The woods-outing and nature lesson planned by Miss Goodwin for the benefit of her pupils on Friday p. m. last was postponed because of the inclemency of the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Goodwin and little daughter drove to Fleming county Sunday and made a brief call on relatives. They pronounce the scenery along this picturesque drive beautiful, but the rough pikes are horrible.

A young horse driven by Mr. Dan Tully, our star route mail carrier, became scared and ran away, then backed over a steep bank scattering mail sacks and carrier, kicked the front of the wagon to pieces, finally running into a bank. Mr. Tully was considerably hurt but not seriously. Another horse was secured and the mail was delivered on schedule time.

TOLLESBORO.

Mrs. Amelia Applegate remains about the same.
George Davis is recovering from an attack of tonsillitis.

Dr. Bowman was in Vanceburg one day last week on business.

B. C. Grigby and Dr. Irvin were in Maysville Wednesday on business.

Miss Bertha Conway, of Ashland, Ky., is visiting her parents at this place.

Spring is here in all its beauty, the farmers and gardeners are all very busy.

Mrs. Nellie Williamson, nee Barkley, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Barkley.

W. B. Tully and family, of Maysville, spent Sunday and Monday with J. B. Bradley.

Uncle Dick Mattingly of this place, had quite a serious hemorrhage last Saturday morning.

Jack Hendrixson and William Mearns were business callers in Maysville last Saturday.

Mrs. Emma Boyd, spent one day last week with her sister, Mrs. Julia Stubblefield, at Reckerville.

Mrs. J. B. Bradley was called to the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Mary E. Hoffman at Bridgeport, who is quite low with consumption.

Robert Clifton an infant child of Tom Wilson died after a short illness Saturday, March 23d. Interment in Tollesboro cemetery. The parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

Moses Laycock, Willis Laycock, Rae Tabb, Mike Danahe, Richard Banc, Dever boys, left yesterday for Arizona, to work in Senator Clark's copper mines.

Miss Daisy G. Greenwood of the faculty of State Normal School at Richmond, formerly of this city, has resigned her position there in order to go to Columbia University, New York, to take up a special line of training.

Miss Eliza Richeson, the efficient Librarian, reports that March was the banner month since she has had charge, and that 1,325 visitors were welcomed and 600 books taken out during the month. This shows how the Library is growing in use and popularity. Now if Mr. Carnegie would only give us $10,000 to build a handsome Colonial front and addition with an auditorium to seat 600 persons, it would be nice.

If you have any real estate you wish to sell list with John Duley now.

Mrs. Rigdon of Germantown was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Burdette Walton, yesterday.

Court Day was a hammer, big crowd and plenty of stock. The steamer Laurance brought to this side 550 passengers and they returned with 375 packages and bundles.

Mrs. William Goddard escaped death at Georgetown by suddenly stooping over to catch a chicken. A stray bullet parted her hair and would have killed her had she been standing at the time.

The Sardia theater was dedicated Saturday night by Hon. George W. Adair, Maysville's silver-tongued orator. A large crowd was present to enjoy the exercises. The new temple of amusement will be formally opened with a play next Friday evening.

THE LEDGER yesterday noted the increase of pension for Mr. Thomas M. Luman of this city. The credit for this good work is due directly to Congressman J. B. Bennett, who is a sincere friend of the old soldier, and ever works in his interest in his District.

Positive proof that the baby found in a creek near Ewing a week ago was drowned was secured Saturday when an autopsy was held on the baby. It was shown by the examination that the baby was at least two weeks old, and that it was alive when thrown into the water. There was nothing to show that any injury was done to the baby before it was thrown into the water, but the condition of the lungs showed that it met death by drowning. County Attorney Alvin S. Kendall is making the investigation, and it is said that sensational developments may come during the next few days.

YOU WILL RECEIVE AN Easter GIFT!

Easter has long since been considered as a close second to Christmas, so far as gift-giving goes. Because it is customary, you will receive gifts, and for the same reason you should arrange to give them. Jewelry makes the most appropriate gifts—Back Combs, Bracelets, as well as Necklaces for feminine adornment. The men delight in showing their Studs, Scarfpins, Chains and Charms. Watches and Finger Rings are much in evidence. Everything in Jewelry should be asked for is here.

It is Supplied at Last in Maysville

Ever have itching piles? Not sick enough to go to bed; not well enough to be content.

The constant itching sensation. Spoils your temper, nearly drives you crazy. You can have relief and cure if you will follow the advice of a local citizen.

Mrs. S. F. Tolle, of 117 Short street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"Before I used Doan's Ointment, in March 1900, I had suffered for a long while with itching hemorrhoids. I had tried persistently to rid myself of the trouble but without success, and anybody who has known the tortures of this complaint will understand what I suffered. Doan's Ointment cured me, as stated in a testimonial given at that time. During the five years past I have had no return of the trouble. It required only one box to bring this gratifying result. I have used Doan's Ointment other purposes and find that it is a specific skin troubles and all itching diseases."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take other.

The Future Happiness of the Bride and Groom

Is largely dependent upon the home. No matter how hard you try, it's absolutely impossible to be thoroughly happy and contented in barren, half-furnished apartments; you simply can't make it seem home-like. To the beginner contemplating furnishing a home we desire to state that in justice to your purse you should give us a call and look at our line of house furnishings before placing your order.
